

National Drinking Water Week Proclamation

WHEREAS, water is our most valuable natural resource; and

WHEREAS, only tap water delivers public health protection, fire protection, support for our economy and the quality of life we enjoy; and

WHEREAS, we are fortunate to have clean, quality water services in Banks; and

WHEREAS, we are all stewards of the water infrastructure upon which future generations depend; and

WHEREAS, each citizen of our community is called upon to help protect our source waters from pollution to practice water conservation, and to get involved in local water issues.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Stephanie Jones, Mayor, with the advice and support of the City Council, do hereby proclaim May 5th – 11th, 2024, as National Drinking Water Week in the City of Banks; and I call upon the citizens of Banks to observe this important week by renewing our efforts to conserve water, protect our water sources from pollution and maintain our home water systems in tip-top condition.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and the seal of the City of Banks this 9th day of April 2024.

Stephanie Jones, Mayor
